CHAPTER 3

3.181 MEDIA OR OTHER PUBLIC ACCESS COVERAGE OF COURT EVENTS

Media or Public Access Coverage is prohibited in the hallways outside of any Courtroom or Court Office. Upon request, on a case by case basis, the Court will consider designating an area outside of the courtrooms and prohibited court areas for media and public access coverage.

CHAPTER 4

4.011 PROCEEDINGS IN CRIMINAL CASES

When a not guilty plea is entered and trial is set, counsel shall advise the Court if it is anticipated that motions will be filed. At that time, a deadline for the filing of motions will be set as will a time for hearing the motions, taking into consideration counsels' schedules and the trial date. If unanticipated motions are filed within 45 days of the scheduled trial date, the Court will set the date and time for hearing the motions at the Court's convenience.

CHAPTER 6

6.012 SETTLEMENT CONFERENCES

- (1) If one party requests a pretrial settlement conference, or in cases designated by the Court, the Court will make every effort to hold a mandatory pretrial settlement conference. However, scheduling of a settlement conference is subject to judicial availability and a settlement conference shall not be scheduled so as to delay trial of the case. The pretrial settlement conference will not be required if the opposing party demonstrates good cause why the settlement conference should not be held.
- (2) The purpose of the settlement conference is to provide a forum to resolve disputes before trial through the active participation of counsel and the Court. The attendance of all parties and their trial attorney is required. When a party is insured, a representative of the insurance company with authority to settle the case shall be in attendance or readily available by telephone. Upon a showing of good cause, the judge conducting the settlement conference may excuse a party from personally appearing, but the party may be required to participate by telecommunications.
- (3) If the case does not settle, the settlement conference judge shall be permitted to act as trial judge only if all parties so stipulate in writing.
- (4) For a meaningful settlement conference to occur, all attorneys and parties must participate in good faith. The failure of any person to comply with these rules, appear at, or participate in a settlement conference, unless good cause is shown for any such failure, may result in the court imposing appropriate sanctions as described in UTCR 1.090. Cases set for a settlement conference shall retain their place on the trial docket.
- (5) If settlement negotiations are not successful, counsel should be prepared to proceed to trial on the date scheduled. The court will make every effort to ensure the case proceeds to trial on the date scheduled.
- (6) Before the settlement conference, each party shall submit to the settlement conference judge a pretrial statement that contains, at a minimum:
 - (a) A brief summary and analysis of the key issues involved in the litigation; and
 - (b) The status of any settlement negotiations.
- (7) The pretrial statements shall be presumed confidential and shall not be placed in the court file, nor shall any notes prepared by the judge be filed or otherwise disclosed, except by permission of the attorneys or by Court order.
- (8) If a settlement is reached, the parties shall place notice of settlement on the record before the scheduled trial date, in accordance with UTCR 6.020.

CHAPTER 7

7.011 SCHEDULING OF CRIMINAL TRIALS

Criminal trials shall be set in open court in the presence of the defendant, defense attorney and prosecutor so that all interested persons will have actual notice thereof. This will ordinarily occur at the time of a plea entry. Attorneys will be expected to have their personal calendars available for discussion.

7.015 SCHEDULING AND NOTIFICATION OF PARTIES FOR TRIAL AND MOTIONS

- (1) Scheduling of civil and domestic relations trials shall be as follows: When a civil or domestic relations case is at issue, the docket clerk will forward to the attorney for each of the parties, a Trial Setting Order, substantially in the form set forth on Appendix 1, attached hereto and incorporated herein by this reference. Each attorney shall accurately complete each provision of the questionnaire and return it to the Court by the date shown on the questionnaire. The docket clerk will schedule a trial based on the information obtained and give written notice to counsel for each party in accordance with (3) of this rule.
- (2) Upon the filing of a motion or response requesting oral argument, in accordance with UTCR 5.050(1), the docket clerk shall schedule the matter for argument. All motions will be scheduled for the time estimated in the request, but not more than 30 minutes. An attorney receiving a notice scheduling an amount of time for argument which the attorney believes is insufficient shall advise the docket clerk of that insufficiency immediately.
- (3) Notification of the dates for trial and motions shall be given as follows:
 - (a) Notice of the date set for trial in a criminal, civil or domestic relations case shall be sent to counsel for each party. The written notice shall inform counsel of the date and hour trial is scheduled to commence, the number of days scheduled and whether it is before the Court or to a Jury.
 - (b) When a motion is scheduled for argument the docket clerk shall send to counsel for each party a written notice stating the date, the hour and the amount of time scheduled for argument. Unless counsel makes arrangements for a conference call, all arguments will be heard in person in the courtroom. The Court has a speaker phone system which can be set up in the courtroom so the court reporter can make a record of argument made by counsel appearing by conference call. Counsel desiring to proceed in that manner shall advise the docket clerk of their need for a court reporter at least one hour prior to the time for argument.

CHAPTER 8 - DOMESTIC PROCEEDINGS

8.013 STATEMENT OF ASSETS/LIABILITIES

In any contested dissolution of marriage, separate maintenance, annulment or dissolution of a domestic partnership action, if there are any disputes regarding the value or disposition of items of property or liabilities, the parties shall confer and jointly prepare a list of all property and liabilities the Court will be asked to distribute. Indicate each party's opinion regarding the fair market value of each item listed and each party's proposed distribution of the property and liability. (Described individually or by groupings, as counsel may agree). At the bottom of each page there is to be a subtotal for each party based upon their claim for the item and their estimate of fair market value. The last page is to have a total for each party based upon their estimated fair market value. A proposed form is included in the Appendix to these rules as Appendix II.

8.015 PARENTING EDUCATION PROGRAM

- (1) The following cases are subject to this rule; annulment, legal separation or dissolution of marriage actions where the parties have a child under the age of 18 years, petition to establish custody or visitation and post-judgment litigation involving custody or visitation.
- (2) All parties to proceedings identified above, shall successfully complete the parenting program offered by the Court designated providers. Parties shall register for the program within 15 days of receiving notice of this education requirement. All parties shall complete the program before trial or entry of judgment.
- (3) Notice and instructions to the petitioner of the requirement that the parties complete the education program will be provided by the Trial Court Administrator when the petition is filed. Petitioner, when serving the respondent with the petition shall also include a copy of the Trial Court Administrator's Notice. The petitioner's return of service on the respondent shall indicate service of the notice with the summons and petition.
- (4) Each party shall pay a fee determined by the program provider to cover program costs. The fee may be waived if the party presents a verified affidavit of indigence to the Court, and the party meets indigence guidelines.
- (5) Each person who successfully completes the Court's program shall present a certificate of completion to the Judge before trial or entry of judgment.
- (6) Upon a showing of good cause, a party may request a waiver of this rule. The request must be made by motion, supported by affidavit and filed within 15 days of receipt of the Trial Court Administrator's Notice.
- (7) Court action on a petition or request for post judgment relief shall not be delayed by a party's refusal or delay in completing the program unless the non-complying party is a petitioner or the moving party. Upon a party's failure to successfully complete the education program pursuant to this rule, the assigned Judge may take appropriate action, including, but not limited to, proceedings for contempt.

8.045 PRE-JUDGMENT OR PENDENTE LITE RELIEF PURSUANT TO ORS 107.095(1)

- (1) All applications for pre-judgment relief under ORS 107.095(1) must be by motion for a show cause order and the said order must state separately each item of relief requested by the moving party. Such orders may not state the requested relief by references to a supporting affidavit.
- (2) All such show cause orders shall specify a response time not less than twenty-one (21) days from the date of service thereof upon the opposing party. Such orders shall require the opposing party to respond by filing a response in writing together with opposing affidavits (and requesting affirmative relief, if any) and serving a copy thereof upon the moving party within the aforesaid response time. The said motion, order and supporting affidavits must be served upon the opposing party and the order must have attached thereto a notice substantially in conformity with the form notice set forth in Appendix III to these rules. However, use of such notice may be dispensed with if such service is made upon an attorney known to be representing the opposing party.
- (3) If the opposing party fails to respond to the show cause order as aforesaid, at any time following the response time, and while the opposing party is in default, the moving party may present an order granting the relief sought, provided that proper return of service for the show cause order has been filed.
- (4) If the opposing party responds to the show cause order in due course, the moving party shall have seven days from the date of service of the response to file a reply with supporting affidavits. The reply shall be limited to addressing matters or contentions in the response. No further pleadings will be considered. Seven days from the date of the Court's receipt of the response the Court shall assume the matter is ripe for disposition and shall then in ordinary course decide the matter on the record by reference to the filed materials and promptly notify the parties of any decision by mail or by telephone conference call, whichever seems necessary or expedient.
- (5) However, for good cause shown or upon its own motion, the Court may set such show cause proceedings for determination in open court at a time certain and give notice thereof to both parties.
- (6) The Court may consider applications for ex parte temporary custody and/or parenting time orders pursuant to ORS 107.097(3) at 1:00 p.m. each judicial day, subject to the moving party scheduling such application with the Court's Calendar Coordinator not later than 4:00 p.m. of the previous judicial day. The Court may consider application for ex parte immediate temporary orders for such things as support, restraint, etc., if sufficiently supported by affidavit or other appropriate documentation establishing a bona-fide emergency need therefore. Such applications shall be allowed only if done in conjunction with show cause proceedings as provided herein above touching upon the same issues as are contained in the temporary order so that the opposing party is provided an opportunity to respond. An application for a Temporary Protective Order of Restraint shall be in conformance with ORS 107.097(2).

8.070. PARENTING TIME GUIDELINES

Attached as Appendix IV is a recommended schedule for parenting time for proceedings where there are minor children. The schedule is a guideline only and may be modified based upon appropriate circumstances in individual cases.

CHAPTER 12 - MEDIATION

12.001 MATTERS SUBJECT TO MEDIATION

(1) Mandatory Mediation

Any matter identified in ORS 107.755 or described in ORS 107.765 shall be subject to mediation. The Court will not consider any contested custody or parenting time issue in a proceeding that results in a final judgment or order, and the Court may decline to consider any contested custody or parenting time issue in a proceeding that results in a temporary order under ORS 107.095, unless it is notified by the mediator that the matter has proceeded through mediation in accordance with these rules.

(2) Exclusion from Mediation

A matter may be excluded from mandatory mediation upon application by a party and upon a showing of good cause to the Court with service upon the opposing party and after being given the opportunity to be heard in objection.

(3) Other Matters

A mediator may consider issues of property division or spousal or child support in connection with the mediation of a dispute concerning child custody or parenting time with the written approval of both parties or their counsel.

12.002 CONTROL, AGREEMENTS

A domestic relations case filed in the Circuit Court remains subject to the control of that Court during mediation. The Court which refers a case to mediation may set in its referral order the limits of the mediator's scope of authority in the case. Any agreements of the parties reached as a result of mediation for which Court enforcement may be sought must be presented to the Court, and the Court shall retain final authority to accept, modify or reject the agreement. In order to preserve and promote the integrity of mediation as a dispute resolution technique, the Court shall consider and may include all reasonable agreements reached by the parties in formulating its order in the case.

12.003 MEDIATION PROCESS

(1) Commencement of Mediation by Stipulated Request for Mediation

If there is a disagreement between the parents concerning custody or parenting time at any stage of a domestic relations proceeding, both parents or their attorneys may sign and file with the Court a stipulated request for mediation. A mediator will be available to the parents in accordance with these rules or the parents may agree and stipulate to an independent mediator in their stipulated request for mediation. If the parties choose an independent mediator the costs for the mediator will be paid by the parties jointly.

(2) Commencement of Mediation by Request for Mediation by One Parent

If there is a disagreement between the parents concerning custody or parenting time at any stage of a domestic relation proceeding, either parent seeking to resolve the matter may file with the Court and serve upon the other parent or his or her attorney a request for mediation.

- (3) Commencement of Mediation When Custody or Parenting Time Appears at Issue
Whenever a respondent generally appears in a domestic relations suit by filing answer such as "Respondent Appears" or the like, the respondent shall in addition state whether there is any disagreement over child custody and/or parenting time in the case, or alternatively, whether child custody or parenting time is not an issue in the case.
- (4) Referral by Court to Mediation
When the parties have not requested mediation but it appears that custody and/or parenting time are issues in a proceeding that results in final judgment or order, the Court shall refer the matter to mediation, and in a proceeding that results in a temporary order, the Court may refer the matter to mediation.

12.004 AUTHORITY OF MEDIATORS

- (1) A mediator has authority and control over the mediation process; but a mediator has no control or authority over the parties or over their decisions in this case.
- (2) Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties, the parties' legal counsel shall not be present at mediation sessions.
- (3) A mediator shall encourage disputing parties to obtain individual legal advice and individual legal review of any mediated agreement before signing any agreement.
- (4) A mediator shall not act as a lawyer for either party.

12.005 MEDIATION ORIENTATION

- (1) Whenever mediation is requested as in Rule 12.003 or whenever any pleadings indicate that child custody or parenting time is at issue, the parties shall be ordered to appear at mediation orientation. The parents will be given an opportunity to choose a mediator from those under contract or agreement with Tillamook County at the orientation or consult with their counsel and report their choice of mediator to the Court within seven (7) days. If the parties are unable to agree upon a mediator within seven (7) days, the Court will appoint a mediator pursuant to Rule 12.006(b) and notify the parties of the appointment.
- (2) Mediation shall consist of an orientation session and a maximum of six hours involving the parties and the mediator. Additional time may be provided at the parties' expense.
- (3) Once assigned to mediation, the parties are required to attend the scheduled orientation session, unless by 5:00 P.M. the day of orientation, the parties through their attorneys or personally, request in writing, signed by both parties or their attorneys, excuse from attendance due to settlement or unforeseen emergency. If excused, the parties are required to attend the next mediation orientation unless the Court has received a signed, Stipulated Order or Judgment by 5:00 P.M. of that day.

12.006 ASSIGNMENT OF MEDIATOR

- (1) The parties may select a mediator of their own choosing; however, if the mediator is not on the list of mediators approved by the court, the expense of the mediator shall be the responsibility of the parties.
- (2) Court-appointed Mediator - In the absence of a mediator selected by the parties, the mediation clerk shall select at least three individuals from the Court's panel of mediators and shall send their names to legal counsel for the parties, or to a party directly if not represented, with a request that each party strike one name and notify the court within five (5) judicial days. The mediation clerk, under direction of the court, shall select as mediator one of the three individuals about whom no timely objection was made. For good cause shown, a party may object to more than one name. In the event there is good cause objection to all of the individual's names, the Court will appoint a mediator from the list of court-approved mediators.

12.007 SCHEDULING OF MEDIATION SESSIONS

- (1) Upon receipt of a mediation assignment, a mediator shall immediately notify the parties of a reasonable date and time for the initial mediation session which shall occur in the mediator's office, unless otherwise agreed upon between the mediator and the parties. The initial mediation session should occur within fourteen (14) days of the mediator's receipt of first notice of assignment.
- (2) Mediation shall be completed in a prompt manner and so as to not unduly delay the Court and in no event later than any deadline date ordered by the assigned trial judge.

12.008 MEDIATION COMPLETION

It is the responsibility of the parties and their attorneys to see that mediation is completed within such time as to not delay the trial of the case. Failure to do so may result in dismissal of the case or postponement under such conditions as the Court may require.

12.009 UNSUCCESSFUL MEDIATION

The mediator may notify the Court at any time following the initial mediation sessions involving the parties and the mediator that mediation has been unsuccessful, in which case the proceeding will be scheduled for hearing in the same course and with the same priority as if there had been no mediation. The mediator may determine that the mediation has been unsuccessful if the parents are unable to resolve the custody or parenting time controversy, if one or both parents are unwilling to participate in mediation or if the mediator determines that either parent is using the mediation process in bad faith for the delay of resolution of other issues.

12.010 TEMPORARY CUSTODY AND PARENTING TIME ORDERS

At any point during the mediation the Court may approve a temporary custody and parenting time order reflecting the parents' agreement as to the issues.

12.011 TEMPORARY SUPPORT

If the parents cannot agree on the amount of temporary support to be paid by one to the other and they are also in dispute as to custody and/or parenting time, the mediator may assist upon the request of the parents and the consent of the mediator in resolving the support issue as well.

12.012 CUSTODY AND PARENTING TIME MEDIATION COMMISSION

A Custody and Parenting Time Mediation Commission is established. The Presiding Judge shall appoint the commission members who shall serve at the Presiding Judge's pleasure.

- (1) Function - The commission's function shall be to supervise the mediation program to render advisory opinions at the request of a judge and to recommend rule changes to the judges.
- (2) Composition - The composition of the Commission shall be two judges and two attorneys whose practices include domestic relations work. Ex officio members shall be the Presiding Judge of the Twenty Seventh Judicial District and a court mediation coordinator. The Presiding Judge may appoint additional members.
- (3) Quorum - Two members of the Commission including at least one attorney and one judge shall constitute a quorum.

12.013 MEDIATOR QUALIFICATIONS

To qualify as a Court-approved mediator, a person must:

1. Sign and file an application with the Court; and
2. Receive approval by the Presiding Judge, upon recommendation of the Commission.

NOTE: The privacy of records and confidentiality of communications in mediation are governed by ORS 107.785

CHAPTER 13 - ARBITRATION

13.041 REFERRAL TO ARBITRATION; MOTIONS

(1) A case subject to arbitration will be assigned to arbitration when all parties have appeared.

(2) In the event a motion to file an amended pleading is allowed by the arbitrator which causes the case no longer to be subject to mandatory arbitration, the party filing such a pleading must so notify the Arbitration Clerk. Unless the parties stipulate otherwise, the clerk will then remove the case from arbitration.

13.161 SCHEDULING OF HEARING

(1) Except for good cause shown, the hearing must be scheduled to take place no later than 90 days, from the date of assignment of the case to the arbitrator. A hearing may be postponed or continued only with permission of the arbitrator, but it must still take place within the 90 day period. The arbitrator must obtain approval of the Presiding Judge for a continuance or postponement beyond the 90 day period. The arbitrator must give notice of any continuance to the trial court administrator.

(2) Continuances and postponements shall not be granted except in the more unusual circumstances. Approximately three months are allocated for the arbitration process. The arbitrator is given the power to enforce the rules and will be required to maintain the schedule.

CHAPTER 8 - APPENDIX IV

GUIDELINES FOR PARENTING TIME WITH MINOR CHILDREN IN DOMESTIC RELATIONS CASES (0 - 175 Miles)

I. PARENTS CAN AGREE TO A DIFFERENT PLAN

The parties can arrange any parenting time plan they desire or may vary portions of this plan, but only if both parents agree. If the parents do not agree to a different plan, the nonresidential parent will have parenting time as set forth in this plan unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

II. DEFINITIONS

- A. Weekends: A weekend is defined as commencing at 6:00 p.m. on Friday and ending at 6:00 p.m. on the following Sunday. The first weekend of the month is defined as the first weekend that has both a Saturday and a Sunday within the same calendar month. The fifth weekend will be the fifth weekend of any calendar month in which both Saturday and Sunday fall within the same calendar month. The fifth weekend occurs 2 to 3 times per year.
- B. Vacation and Holiday Periods: These are the dates set by the school the child attends or by the public school district in which the child resides if the child is not attending school or is home schooled.
- C. Conflicts. If routine parenting time conflicts with holiday and vacation parenting time, then the parent entitled to holiday and vacation time will have the child(ren). Holiday and vacation parenting time will not work to change the routine schedule nor will it “restart” the routine parenting time schedule.

III. TILLAMOOK COUNTY STANDARD PARENTING PLAN (0- 175 MILES)

ROUTINE SCHEDULE This schedule is to be utilized so long as the nonresidential parent lives within 175 miles of the children.

The nonresidential parent will have the child(ren) as follows:

- A. Children aged birth to 6 months. Three times per week for two hours each as follows: Saturday 1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.; Tuesday and Thursday 5:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.
- B. Children aged 6 months to 18 months. Two times per week for three hours as follows: Tuesday and Thursday from 5:30 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.; and on the 1st, 3rd and 5th Saturdays of each month from 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m.
- C. Children aged 18 months to 36 months. Two times per week for three hours as follows: Tuesday and Thursday from 5:30 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.; and on the 1st, 3rd and 5th weekends from 6:00 p.m. Friday until 6:00 p.m. Saturday.
