12.015 COURT JURISDICTION

- (1) A case filed in the Circuit Court remains under the jurisdiction of that court in all phases of the proceeding, including mediation.
- (2) Any agreement of the parties reached as a result of mediation for which court enforcement may be sought must be presented to the court and the court shall retain final authority to accept, modify or reject the agreement.
- (3) At any point during the mediation, the court may approve a temporary custody and visitation order reflecting the parties' agreement as to those issues.

12.020 MEDIATION ORIENTATION

- (1) When a proceeding under SLR 12.005 is filed with the court, the parties shall be ordered to appear at mediation orientation. The parents will be given the opportunity to choose a mediator from those on the court-approved mediator list at orientation or consult with their counsel and report their choice of mediator to the court within fourteen (14) days. If the parties are unable to agree upon a mediator within fourteen (14) days, the court will appoint a mediator and notify the parties of the appointment.
- (2) Mediation shall consist of an orientation session and a maximum of six hours involving the parties and the mediator. Additional time may be provided at the parties' expense.
- (3) Once assigned to mediation, the parties are required to attend the scheduled orientation session, unless by 5:00 P.M. the day of orientation, the parties through their attorneys or personally, request in writing, signed by both parties or their attorneys, excuse from attendance due to settlement or unforeseen emergency. - (2) In the absence of a mediator selected by the parties, the court will appoint a mediator from the court approved list of mediators.

12.035 AUTHORITY OF MEDIATORS

- (4) A mediator shall not act as a lawyer for either party.

12.040 SCHEDULING OF MEDIATION SESSIONS

- (1) Upon notification of a mediation assignment, the mediator shall immediately notify the parties of a reasonable date(s) and time(s) for the mediation sessions which shall take place in Columbia County unless another location is agreed upon by the parties. The initial mediation session should occur within fourteen (14) days of the mediator's first notice of assignment.
- (2) Mediation shall be completed in a prompt manner as to not unduly delay the court and in no event later than any deadline date which may be ordered by the court.

12.045 MEDIATOR'S REPORT TO THE COURT

- (1) In all cases which have been referred to a court appointed mediator, the mediator shall make a final report to the court describing the conclusion of the mediation, whether successful or unsuccessful.

- (a) Successful Mediation

The mediator shall prepare a written memorandum of any agreement which the parties have reached as a result of mediation. The unsigned, proposed form of the memorandum of agreement shall be distributed to the parties and their counsel by the mediator. If the parties choose to sign a memorandum of agreement after having had the opportunity to review with an attorney, the document may then be incorporated into a court judgment or order.

- (b) Unsuccessful Mediation

The mediator may notify the court at any time following the initial mediation session involving the parties and the mediator that mediation has been unsuccessful, in which case the proceeding will be scheduled for hearing in the same course and with the same priority as if there had been no mediation. The mediator may determine that the mediation has been unsuccessful if the parties are unable to resolve the custody or parenting time controversy; or, if one or both parties are unwilling to participate in mediation; or, if the mediator determines that either party is using the mediation process in bad faith for the delay of resolution of other issues.

12.050 COMPENSATION OF MEDIATORS

- (1) In issues subject to mandatory mediation under these rules, Columbia County shall compensate the mediator at the rate of $60.00 per hour up to a maximum of six (6) hours per case, including one (1) hour for time spent preparing written memoranda or agreements. The funding source shall be fees collected pursuant to ORS 107.615 and 21.112. The County shall compensate the mediator for one hour for attending the mediation orientation.
- (2) In issues not involved in mandatory mediation, the parties may agree to mediate with the court-appointed mediator; but the compensation arrangements shall be between the parties and the mediator, as they may agree in writing, and the compensation rate shall be negotiated by and between the parties and the mediator.
- (3) If the parties select a mediator who is not on the court-approved list, the compensation shall be fixed by agreement between the parties and the mediator, and shall be the responsibility of the parties.

Chapter 13 Arbitration

All Circuit Court civil money cases wherein the only relief claimed is recovery of money or damages in the amount less than $50,000 will be referred to arbitration unless otherwise ordered by the Court. The arbitration shall take place in Columbia County unless another location is agreed upon by the parties.

13.035 ARBITRATION COMMISSION

The Arbitration Program shall function under the direction of an Arbitration Commission, appointed by the Presiding Judge.

13.045 REFERRING CASES TO ARBITRATION

Cases which are otherwise subject to arbitration will be referred to arbitration as follows:

- (1) Within twenty (20) days of the date on which the Answer is filed, or
- (2) If no Answer has been filed, but the return of service has been received, within ninety (90) days of the date the Complaint is filed, or
- (3) At any time as specifically directed by the Presiding Judge.

13.095 ARBITRATION PANEL

- (1) The Columbia County Arbitration Panel will consist of individuals selected by the Arbitration Commission and having the following qualifications:
 - (a) An attorney with at least five (5) years continuous practice of law in Oregon including significant experience in civil litigation, with a present emphasis in his or her practice of law on civil litigation; or
 - (b) State of Oregon retired or senior judge.
- (2) The parties may stipulate to any arbitrator.
- (3) The panel will be selected by the Arbitration Commission subject to approval of the Presiding Judge.
- (4) A person desiring to serve as an arbitrator shall complete an information sheet on the form prescribed by the Court. A list showing the names of the members of the Arbitration Panel will be available for public inspection in the Arbitration Clerk's office. Execution of the form, oath and agreement to serve must be completed and filed before an applicant is eligible to arbitrate a case.
- (5) Refusal and Disqualification - The appointment of an arbitrator is subject to the right of that person to refuse to serve. An arbitrator must notify the Arbitration Clerk immediately if refusing to serve, or if any cause exists for the arbitrator's disqualification from the case upon any grounds of interest, relationship, bias or prejudice governing the disqualification of judges.
- (6) If disqualified, the arbitrator must immediately return all materials in the case to the Arbitration Clerk and the assignment of the case to arbitration will be repeated in compliance with 13.085.

- (7) No arbitrator shall have pending at any given time more than three (3) arbitration cases.

13.125 COMPENSATION OF ARBITRATORS - CIRCUIT COURT CASES

- (1) The Arbitration Commission shall establish a compensation schedule for arbitrators.* The fee will be paid in equal shares by the parties within fourteen (14) days after the assignment of the arbitrator and will be deposited in the arbitrator's trust account until final disposition of the action. After final disposition, any refunds then owing will be paid within seven (7) business days.

*The maximum fee per case established by the Arbitration Commission is $500.00 except under extraordinary conditions when the procedural or substantive "complexity" of the matter justifies a higher fee.

 For the purpose of this rule, "complexity" refers to the multiplicity of parties and their representative claims, but may include other factors. If the arbitrator suggests that such extraordinary conditions justify a larger fee, and the parties concur, the fee will be adjusted accordingly and will be paid in full by the respective parties prior to the commencement of the arbitration hearing. If the parties do not concur with the higher fee, the arbitrator will bring the matter to the attention of the Presiding Judge before the commencement of the arbitration hearing. In such circumstances, the Presiding Judge may authorize a higher arbitrator's fee which must be paid before the commencement of the arbitration hearing, but in no event more than fourteen (14) days following the Court's written approval.

- (2) If the plaintiff fails to pay the prescribed fee within fourteen (14) calendar days of assignment, the court may exercise its authority under UTCR 1.090 to strike the complaint which constitutes dismissal of the proceedings, absent relief prescribed by ORS 36.420(3).
- (3) If the defendant fails to pay the prescribed fee within fourteen (14) calendar days of assignment, the Court may exercise its authority under UTCR 1.090 to impose an appropriate sanction.

13.127 INDIGENT PARTIES

APPENDIX D - SLR 8.075

In the absence of a court order regarding parenting time the following parenting time schedule shall apply:

- (1) Except when a specified parenting period is set forth hereafter, every other weekend of each month. A weekend is defined as commencing at 7:00 p.m. on Friday and ending 7:00 p.m. the following Sunday; and
- (2) Whether or not the child(ren) are in school, during the period of Christmas school vacation from 9:00 a.m. the day after school adjourns until 9:00 a.m. on Christmas morning in even-numbered years, and from 9:00 a.m. on Christmas morning until 7:00 p.m. on the day before school resumes in odd-numbered years; and
- (3) Whether or not the child(ren) are in school, for a period of thirty-five (35) days during the period of school summer vacation. Before May 1 of each year, the non-custodial parent shall select and notify the custodial parent in writing of the inclusive dates of the thirty-five (35) day parenting time period with the child(ren). If the non-custodial parent fails to give such written notice to the custodial parent before May 1 of the year of the summer parenting time, the non-custodial parent nevertheless shall have the right to such summer parenting time with the child(ren) after giving two (2) weeks' written notice to the custodial parent, if and to the extent that the time remains for such parenting time; provided, however, that the custodial parent shall have the right to choose the inclusive dates for such parenting time. When the non-custodial parent exercises his or her right to a summer parenting time period of more than nineteen (19) days with the child(ren), the custodial parent shall have the right to a weekend parenting time with the child(ren), on the third weekend after commencement of the extended parenting time by the non-custodial parent. Such interim visitation/parenting time by the custodial parent shall not lengthen the thirty-five (35) day parenting time period allowed to the non-custodial parent; and
- (4) Parenting time, in even-numbered years, on the following holidays or during the following holiday periods:
 - (a) The birthdays of the child(ren), from 9:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. if the birthday falls on a weekend, or from 5:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. if the birthday falls on a school day;
 - (b) Thanksgiving holiday, commencing on Wednesday at 7:00 p.m. and ending on the following Friday at 7:00 p.m.;
 - (c) The Fourth of July from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m.; and
 - (d) Whether or not the child(ren) is(are) in school, during the period of school spring vacation (measured from the day after school adjourns through the day before school resumes), commencing at 9:00 a.m. and ending at 7:00 p.m. and
- (5) Parenting time, in odd-numbered years, on the following holidays or during the following holiday periods:
 - (a) Memorial Day weekend, commencing on the Friday preceding Memorial Day at 7:00 p.m. and ending on the following Monday at 7:00 p.m.; and
 - (b) Labor Day, commencing on the Friday preceding Labor Day at 7:00 p.m. and ending on Monday, Labor Day, at 7:00 p.m.

In each year, the mother shall have the child(ren) on Mother's Day, and the father shall have the child(ren) on Father's Day, from 9:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.

The custodial parent shall have the right to designate one weekend each summer when the non-custodial parent's weekend parenting will not occur in order that the custodial parent can have the child(ren) for an uninterrupted two (2) week period. Before May 15 of each year, the custodial parent shall inform the non-custodial parent of which weekend has been selected. The weekend shall not be on a holiday, birthday or during the non-custodial parent's summer parenting time.

Periods of *[visitation/]*parenting time are given the following priority: (1) Holiday; (2) Summer parenting time period; and (3) normal weekend parenting. In other words, if it is the non-custodial parent's Fourth of July holiday and that falls on a period when the custodial parent has the child(ren), the holiday parenting time will prevail, etc. There will not be normal weekend parenting time for the non-custodial parent during the summer school vacation except as specifically set forth above.

All parenting time periods shall be exercised in a prompt manner so that both parties can make their plans accordingly. The non-custodial parent shall pick the child(ren) up from the front steps of the custodial parent's residence no earlier than fifteen (15) minutes before and not later than fifteen (15) minutes after the parenting time period commences. Return of the child(ren) to the front steps of the custodial parent's residence shall also be subject to the fifteen (15) minute rule. The custodial parent shall have the child(ren) fed and ready on time for parenting, with sufficient and proper clothing packed and ready for the parenting time period which the non-custodial parent shall return. In the event the child(ren) are ill and unable to visit, a makeup parenting time will be allowed to the non-custodial parent on the next succeeding weekend. However, if the non-custodial parent fails to exercise his or her parenting time, for reasons of health or any other reason, there will be no makeup parenting time period. The child(ren) will not be permitted to determine whether they wish to visit with the non-custodial parent.

Personal plans of the custodial parent or child(ren), school activities, church activities, and other considerations will not be reasons for failing to adhere to this parenting time schedule. Only substantial medical reasons will be considered sufficient for postponement of parenting time. Both parties will provide addresses and contact telephone numbers to the other party and of any emergency circumstances or substantial changes in the health of the child(ren).

The non-custodial parent shall, in addition to the parenting time set forth in this order, have the unlimited right to correspond with the minor child(ren) of the parties, and to telephone the minor child(ren) during reasonable hours without interference or monitoring by the custodial parent or anyone else in any way.

Both parties are restrained and enjoined from making derogatory comments about the other party in the presence of the child(ren) or in any way diminishing the love, respect and affection that the child(ren) have for the other party.

In addition to the parenting time specified above, the non-custodial parent shall have the right to visit with the child(ren) at school, attend the child(ren)'s school activities, and have full access to school teachers and administrators for complete information about the child(ren) in school.
