Any agreement of the parties reached as a result of mediation for which court enforcement may be sought must be presented to the court, and the court shall retain final authority to accept, modify or reject the agreement. In order to preserve and promote the integrity of mediation as a dispute-resolution technique, the court will endeavor to include all reasonable agreements reached by the parties in formulating its order in the case.

(3) Other Matters

The parties and mediator may agree that the mediator may deal additionally with child support.

12.025 MEDIATION AND TEMPORARY SUPPORT

1) Mediation

(a) Commencement of Mediation by Stipulated Request for Mediation

If there is a disagreement between the parents concerning custody or parenting time prior to a judgment or after a judgment in a domestic relations suit proceeding, both parents, or their attorneys, may sign and file with the court a stipulated request for mediation, in substantially the form as of that attached to these rules. The parents will be referred by the court to the Douglas County Mental Health Division for mediation in accordance with these rules, or the parents may agree and stipulate to an independent mediator in their stipulated request for mediation.

Whenever a respondent appears in a domestic relations case by filing an answer and indicates on the pleading whether child custody or parenting time is at issue, the court shall refer the parties to the Mental Health Division for Mediation Orientation.

(c) Temporary Custody and Parenting Time Orders

At any point during the mediation, the court may approve a temporary custody and parenting time order reflecting the parents' agreement as to the issues.

(e) Good Faith Required

(d) Unsuccessful Mediation

In the event the parents are not successful in mediating the custody or parenting time controversy, the mediator shall notify the court. Upon written request by either party, a temporary custody and parenting time hearing shall be scheduled as soon as possible. Any request by a party for a hearing shall identify the issues to be determined and the length of time required for the hearing.

(2) Temporary Support

If the parents cannot agree on the amount of support to be paid by one to the other, and they are also in dispute as to custody and/or parenting time, the mediator may assist, upon the request of the parents and the consent of the mediator, in resolving the support issue as well.

12.035 INDEPENDENT MEDIATORS

- (1) The parties may select by stipulation a mediator independent of the court system. The parties shall directly contract with the independent mediator and be responsible for payment of any agreed-upon fee for mediation service.
- (2) If an independent mediator is selected, the parties or their attorneys shall file with the court a written stipulation indicating the name of the mediator and the date set for the first mediation session.
- (3) If a stipulation for independent mediation is not filed by the time set for the hearing on any child custody or parenting time dispute, the parties will be ordered to the Mental Health Division for mediation pursuant to Rule 12.025.
- (4) If the parties select an independent mediator pursuant to Rule 12.035(2), after a referral has been made to the Mental Health Division, they shall comply with Rule 12.035(2) and send a copy of the stipulation to the Mental Health Division.

12.045 LITIGATION OF UNRESOLVED CONFLICT

If the court is notified by a mediator, in the case of mandatory mediation, that further attempts at mediation will prove unsuccessful or detrimental to the interests of any party, then the court shall notify the domestic relations docketing clerk that the matter shall be set for trial, unless a party advises the clerk that the matter is settled.

12.055 CUSTODY EVALUATIONS

- (1) If the parties agree, a private custody evaluation may be conducted and the parties shall be responsible for the costs of the evaluation. The parties shall notify the court in writing that a private evaluator has been chosen and shall provide the court with the name and address of the evaluator within 10 days.
- (2) The evaluator shall be provided 10 weeks from the time of referral to complete the evaluation and must submit the report to the parties at least 14 days prior to the scheduled court hearing. The evaluator may provide the opportunity for a meeting with counsel and/or the parties to discuss the evaluation results prior to the scheduled court hearing. The report shall not be provided to the court unless offered to the court as evidence.
- (3) The evaluator assigned to do a custody or parenting time evaluation shall not be the same individual who served as a mediator for the parties unless the parties give their written consent.
- (4) The court shall be notified by the evaluator if a party refuses to cooperate with the evaluation process. The evaluator shall also notify the court if the evaluator cannot complete a report and indicate why the report cannot be completed.
