The court may order a settlement conference in selected domestic relations matters.
- (2) A trial-setting conference is not held prior to the pre-trial settlement conference.
- (3) Without the consent of both parties, the settlement conference judge shall not be permitted to act as the trial judge if the case does not settle.
- (4) The following must be personally present at the settlement conference, unless excused in advance by the Court for good cause:

 - (b) The trial attorneys; and
 - (c) The insurance company representatives who have the authority to settle the case.
- (5) When appropriate, an insured party may appear by such party's trial counsel and insurance carrier.
- (6) Notwithstanding the information required in subsection (7) of this rule, pretrial statements are not required in civil cases. Upon the request of either party, any pretrial statements and supporting documents that are voluntarily submitted by the parties are maintained in a separate confidential file, except for those documents required to be filed in Domestic Relations cases.
- (7) In Domestic Relations cases, information and documents required under UTCR 8.010 (4) and (5), regarding distribution of assets and support, must be filed and served at the time of the pretrial conference.

- (9) The materials and notes prepared by the pretrial settlement judge are not placed in the trial court file and are maintained as separate confidential records.

- (2) Fees payable at the conclusion of the trial shall be paid by 5:00 P.M. on the day trial concludes unless the fee is waived or deferred. If the trial concludes after the close of business, the fees shall be paid the morning of the first court day thereafter. For purposes of this rule, a jury trial shall be deemed concluded when the jury returns a verdict.
- (3) The trial judge may elect to delay commencement of the case until the fees are paid, but failure to pay the fees as stated in SLR 6.025(1) shall not be grounds for a postponement.

SLR 6.031: POSTPONEMENT OF TRIAL

A request to postpone trial must be made by filing a motion, affidavit and order with the appropriate processing unit. Faxes will not be accepted. All requests to postpone trial will be forwarded to the Presiding Judge for a decision, and a hearing will be held only at the direction of the Presiding Judge.
