The accompanying supporting affidavit/declaration must provide information and documentation necessary to justify the relief requested.
- (iii) If the opposing party intends to request relief different from or in opposition to the relief requested by his/her opponent, the opposing party must file with the Court a motion and counter affidavit/counter declaration. The accompanying supporting counter affidavit/declaration must provide information and documentation necessary to justify or oppose the relief requested.
- (iv) The party initiating the request for temporary custody and/or parenting time hearing need not file with the court further documents in opposition to the opposing party's motion and counter affidavit/counter declaration.
- (v) All documents must be served upon all parties not in default pursuant to and in accordance with ORCP 9.

- (vi) The Court will schedule a hearing only in the event a party opposes the initial request for temporary custody and/or parenting time in accordance with subsection (iii) above. Otherwise, the Court shall not hold a hearing and shall make a ruling on the record.

(2) Temporary Support

If the parents cannot agree on the amount of support to be paid by one to the other, and they are also in dispute as to custody and/or parenting time, the mediator may assist, upon the request of the parents and the consent of the mediator, in resolving the support issue as well.
