3.141 RESIGNATION OF COUNSEL - CRIMINAL, VIOLATION CASES

In criminal cases, including appeals from Justice and Municipal Courts, application for withdrawal or discharge of counsel shall be in open Court at 2:30 call or an arraignment, after notice to opposing counsel, and with the defendant present unless the defendant's whereabouts are unknown.

A Motion to Withdraw by defense counsel in a criminal case shall begin with a reference to the trial date or a statement that the case has not been set for trial. If the case is set for trial, the motion must recite whether, how and when defendant was notified of the trial date. Upon filing a Motion to Withdraw, it shall be the responsibility of the defense counsel in criminal cases to have the matter placed upon the appropriate court docket for the appearance required by this rule and to give notice of the appearance date and time to the defendant and the District Attorney.

3.142 ATTORNEY OF RECORD

(1) Telephone calls or statements by a litigant at arraignment or otherwise are not sufficient to designate an attorney-of-record.

(2) When one attorney is substituted for another, the filed and served notice of substitution is sufficient to change the attorney-of-record, except that there shall be no change from one court appointed attorney to another court appointed attorney without prior leave of the court.

No demurrer may be continued more than once, unless ordered by the Court.

(2) Any pretrial demurrer in a case assigned to a judge shall be decided by the judge to whom the case has been assigned, unless the presiding judge designates some other judge to decide it.

This rule is not intended to preempt ORCP 55, nor prevent the service and acceptance of any subpoena.

However, upon written stipulation of counsel filed in the chambers of the judge assigned the matter not later than the Thursday of the week preceding the day for consideration, the consideration may be continued until the following motion day. No motion may be continued more than once, nor additional time to file memoranda allowed, unless ordered by the Court. When a party requests telephonic argument, the clerk will set a specific time for argument on the customary motion day docket.

(2) If the case has been assigned a trial date at the time of the filing of the motion, that fact and the trial date shall constitute the first sentence of the motion.

(3) Except when a stipulation is filed pursuant to (1) above, a party moving to postpone or accelerate the consideration of matters on the motion docket, including requests for expedited hearing, shall ascertain the position of all other parties regarding the postponement or acceleration, and shall include a statement of those positions in its motion. In the absence of such statement, the motion to postpone or accelerate will be denied and the matter considered in the normal course.

(4) A party moving to amend its pleadings shall ascertain the positions of all other parties regarding amendment, and, if the motion is unopposed, it shall so state in its heading. Unopposed motions to amend shall be immediately considered by the Court. Opposed motions to amend shall be considered by the Court in the normal course.

5.006 TESTIMONY BY JUDGE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OR TRIAL COURT ADMINISTRATOR

Any matter requiring testimony of a judge of the Lane County Circuit Court and/or the Trial Court Administrator will be subject to a pretrial conference to determine scheduling of the witness and what the testimony is intended to elicit. The party seeking the testimony shall request the pretrial conference no later than 5 days before the scheduled trial date. This rule is not intended to preempt ORCP 55, nor prevent the service and acceptance of any subpoena.

5.021 POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

Subject to UTCR 1.100, any motion not accompanied by a written statement of points and authorities or memorandum of law shall be stricken at the time such motion comes on for consideration. Points are concise statements of the arguments supporting the motion. Each point shall be followed by citation of authorities for that point. Court decisions shall be identified by name and parallel citation.

5.061 PRESENTATION OF EX PARTE ORDERS

(4) Ex parte orders postponing trials shall be presented only to the presiding judge, unless the presiding judge otherwise directs.

(5) Paragraph (4) of this rule applies to ex parte orders postponing trials in decedents' estates, guardianships and conservatorships, as well as to all other ex parte orders postponing trials. The other paragraphs of this rule do not apply to ex parte orders in decedents' estates, guardianships and conservatorships.

(6) All motions and affidavits seeking an ex parte order and/or judgment of default shall state the method of service and date and time service was made and perfected. In addition to a declaration in the affidavit this information shall be set forth in the first line of the motion.

The assigned settlement judge will determine whether a pretrial statement or other document must be submitted to the judge prior to the settlement conference, when it should be submitted, and whether it will be confidential or non-confidential. Materials or notes prepared by the pretrial settlement judge will remain confidential and will not be placed in the court file in the event that the case does not settle. The assigned settlement judge will determine the appropriate method for reporting settlement and removing the case from the active trial docket and will determine whether a trial setting conference must be held prior to the pretrial settlement conference.

However, the parties will not be referred to mediation if the existing parenting time order was entered in a Family Abuse Prevention Act proceeding. If the court refers the matter to mediation, the mediator may decline mediation if, for good cause, the mediator determines that the proceeding is either inappropriate for mediation, or if mediation cannot reasonably take place before the hearing date. If mediation is so declined, the mediator shall advise the court and the parties in writing,

The Court will not consider any contested custody or parenting time issue in a proceeding which results in a final judgment, and the Court may decline to consider any contested custody or parenting time issue in a proceeding which results in a temporary order under ORS 107.095, unless it is notified by the mediator that the matter has proceeded through mediation in accordance with these rules.

12.002 COURT CONTROL; AGREEMENTS

A domestic relations case filed in the Circuit Court remains under the control of that Court in all phases of the proceedings, including mediation. The Court which refers a case to mediation may set in its referral order the limits of the mediator's scope of authority in the case. Any agreements of the parties reached as a result of mediation for which Court enforcement may be sought must be presented to the Court, and the Court shall retain final authority to accept, modify or reject the agreement. In order to preserve and promote the integrity of mediation as a dispute resolution technique, the Court shall consider and may include all reasonable agreements reached by the parties in formulating its order in the case.

12.003 MEDIATION PROCESS

(1) Commencement of mediation by request for mediation by both parents: If there is a disagreement between parents concerning custody or parenting time at any stage of a domestic relations proceeding, both parents, or their attorneys, may sign and file with the Court a stipulated request for mediation. The parents will be referred by the Court to the mediation program for mediation in accordance with these rules, or the parents may agree and stipulate to an independent mediator in their stipulated request for mediation.

(2) Commencement of mediation by request for mediation by one parent: If there is a disagreement between the parents concerning custody or parenting time at any stage of a domestic relations proceeding, either parent seeking to resolve the matter must file with the Court and serve upon the other parent, or his/her attorney, a request for mediation.

(3) The request for mediation described in (1) and (2) above shall be on a form to be provided or prescribed by the Court.

(4) At a regular time established by the Court, following determination by the Court that the case is appropriate for mediation, both parents shall appear before the Court. The parents will be referred by the Court to the mediation program for mediation in accordance with these rules unless a stipulated request has been filed pursuant to Rule 12.005.

(5) Mediation shall consist of an orientation session and a maximum of four sessions involving the parties and the mediator. Additional sessions may be provided if recommended by the mediator and approved by the program's supervisor. Counsel for the parties may attend the mediation sessions.

(6) Unsuccessful mediation. The mediator may notify the Court at any time following the initial session involving the parties and the mediator that mediation has been unsuccessful, in which case the proceeding will be scheduled for hearing in the same course and with the same priority as if there had been no mediation.

The mediator may determine that the mediation has been unsuccessful if the parents are unable to resolve the custody or parenting time controversy, if one or both parents are unwilling to participate in mediation after the initial session, or if the mediator determines that either parent is using the mediation process in bad faith for delay of resolution of other issues.

(7) It is the responsibility of the parties and their attorneys to see that mediation is completed in a timely fashion so that the trial of the case is not delayed. Failure to do so may result in dismissal of the case when called for trial, or postponement under such conditions as the Court may require.

12.004 INDEPENDENT MEDIATORS

(1) The parties may select by stipulation a mediator independent of the Court system. The parties shall directly contract with the independent mediator and be responsible for payment of any agreed-upon fee for mediation service.

(2) If an independent mediator is selected, the parties or their attorney shall file with the Court a written stipulation indicating the name of the mediator and the date set for the first mediation session.

(3) If a stipulation for independent mediation is not filed by the time set for the hearing on any child custody or visitation dispute, the parties will be ordered to the Court's mediation program for mediation pursuant to Rule 12.003.

(4) If the parties select an independent mediator pursuant to Rule 12.004 (2) after referral has been made to the Court's mediation program, they shall comply with Rule 12.004 (2) and send a copy of the stipulation to the mediation program coordinator.

- (3) In the event a motion to file an amended pleading is allowed by the arbitrator which causes the case no longer to be subject to mandatory arbitration, the party filing such a pleading must so notify the Arbitration Clerk. Unless the parties stipulate otherwise, the clerk will then remove the case from arbitration.

13.121 COMPENSATION OF ARBITRATORS

- (1) Any dispute as to the amount of the arbitrator's fee must be submitted to the court in the form of a motion to determine Arbitrator's Fee within seven (7) days of receipt by the complaining party of the arbitrator's itemized statement required by UTCR 13.120(2). The motion shall be supported by an affidavit and a memorandum supporting the party's position.
- (2) The arbitrator shall file a response, supported by an affidavit, within seven (7) days of receipt of the motion, and the dispute will be resolved by the court in a summary fashion without further argument.
