Local Supplementary Rules for Probate Procedures

PROCEDURES IN GENERAL

Notices of time for filing objections must specify the date by which the objections must be received. The mailing address for filing objections must be provided (Coos County: PO Box 865, North Bend, Oregon 97459; Curry County: PO Box 810, Gold Beach, Oregon 97444).

9.002 Letters of Fiduciary Authority

Court staff will prepare the appropriate letters if not provided by the petitioner. One certified copy of the letters will be provided at no cost. There will be a cost for additional certified copies which must be paid prior to issuance.

9.003 Filing Fees

When filing the inventory, any balance owing on the filing fee must be paid.

9.004 Extensions of Time

Upon written request, an extension of up to 30 days for filing any document will be automatically allowed. If any further extension is necessary, a motion must be filed with the court. A proposed order must accompany any motion.

9.005 Late Filing Notices

One delinquency notice will be sent for each failure to timely file a required document. The notice will specify the number of days to respond. Filing of the document or filing a motion explaining the reason for the delay and stating when the filing will be made is an acceptable response to the notice. If the court receives no response to the notice, an order will be issued for the fiduciary to show cause why he or she should not be removed. Filing the delinquent document can dismiss the show cause order.

9.006 Conferences and Hearings

Telephone conferences or court hearings may be scheduled by request through the judicial assistant to the probate judge. Requesting counsel shall confer with other counsel and advise of the estimated time required and mutually acceptable dates before scheduling with the court.

PROBATE ISSUES

9.022 Bonds

If a bond is required and the petition does not specify the value of assets, a $10,000 bond will be ordered by the court. The bond may be increased upon the filing of the inventory. The court may require a bond of a pro se personal representative, even if the bond is waived in the will or waived by the heirs and devisees. A bond may also be required for a personal representative who is the sole heir or devisee if there is a concern that the creditors may not be paid. A bond is not required for the initiation of an estate when the sole asset is a wrongful death claim; however, a bond may be required when the order approving settlement is signed.

9.023 Timely Closing of Estates

If an estate is not ready for final distribution at the filing of an annual accounting, the personal representative shall provide to the court an explanation of the reasons why the estate is not ready for distribution.

9.024 Judgment of Distribution

The order approving the final account and judgment must state with specificity the names of the heirs or devisees and the specific property, amount, or percentage each receives. It is not acceptable to order distribution "according to the will or final account." Likewise, the order must specify the amount of fees approved.

9.025 Wrongful Death Estates

If the sole reason for probate is to prosecute a wrongful death action, this should be clearly stated in the petition. When the action is complete, dismissed, or the determination has been made to not pursue the claim, an order must be submitted discharging the personal representative and closing the file.

PROTECTIVE PROCEEDINGS

9.081 Oral Objections

When oral objections are allowed by law, the notice must state in Coos County cases that the person can appear at the probate clerk's office at the Courthouse Annex in north Bend (1975 McPherson) Room 216 to make oral objections. In Curry County cases, the place for oral objections is the State Court office on the main floor of the Curry County Courthouse in Gold Beach. Please refer to SLR 1.151 for daily hours of operation for the court clerk's offices.

9.082 In General

(1) For proceedings involving minors, the petition must contain a statement whether the Indian Child Welfare Act ("ICWA") applies. If it does, then the petition must comply with the requirements of the Act. ORS 125.025(2).

(2) One protective proceeding may cover a husband and wife, if both meet the legal requirements for a protective order, or all minor siblings, as long as the same fiduciary or fiduciaries are to be appointed for all the protected people in the matter. Joint petitions for appointment of conservator and guardian or for temporary and permanent guardian are also allowed.

(3) An original and duplicate copy of all petitions seeking appointment of fiduciaries are required.

9.083 Visitors

Arrangements must be made for a visitor prior to filing the petition. The probate clerk can be contacted for the names of court-approved visitors. The petitioner can request appointment of the visitor in the petition, rather than by separate motion. The fee for the visitor is paid directly to the visitor by the petitioner.

9.084 Waiver of Annual Accounting

If all conservatorship assets are placed in a restricted account, with no disbursement without court approval, and a letter from the financial institution acknowledging the restrictions is filed with the court, then no annual accounting will be required as long as there is no disbursement of the funds, other than court-approved attorney or other fiduciary fees.

9.085 Mediation

Objections to appointment of a fiduciary, filed by persons other than the respondent, in Coos County cases shall be referred to mediation prior to hearing. Objections by the respondent, or objections to other proposed actions by the fiduciary, may be referred to mediation in Coos County Cases.

9.095 Other Protective Orders

ORS 125.650 can be used for the court to approve a settlement for which a conservator is not otherwise required, such as a personal injury settlement for a minor where the funds will be held in a restricted account or will be received after the minor reaches 18.

ACCOUNTINGS

9.163 General Procedures

(1) The caption should designate the number of the accounting (e.g., First, Second) and also state if it is the Final Accounting.

(2) The form of accounting must be as described in UTCR 9.160, except as follows:

(A) The term “receipts and disbursements” as applied to a brokerage account for stocks, bonds, mutual funds, or other similar investments shall not apply to transactions within the account which do not constitute a withdrawal from or a deposit to the account by the fiduciary. In lieu thereof, the net change in value of the brokerage account from the beginning of the accounting period to the end of the accounting period, as a result of transactions within the account and changes in value of assets, shall be provided.

(B) Any estate having a value of less than $200,000 at both the beginning and the ending of an accounting period with income during the period less than $40,000 may use the form of accounting allowed for a trust company under UTCR 9.160.

(3) An alternative form of accounting will be acceptable so long as the accounting includes the following:

(A) An asset schedule, included in the narrative or as a separate exhibit, which shall list each asset on hand at the beginning of the accounting period and each asset on hand at end of the period with:

(a) The specific balance at the end of the period in each deposit account (any account containing cash or cash equivalents), and

(b) The fiduciary’s estimate of the current value as of the end of the accounting period of each asset that is not a deposit account, and

(c) A narrative explanation describing the nature of any transaction by which an asset (other than a cash receipt or disbursement) was acquired, disposed of, or substantially changed in value during the accounting period. In the case of securities held in a brokerage account, in which the only change is market fluctuation, this requirement may be satisfied by so stating.

(B) A schedule of receipts, included in the narrative or as a separate exhibit, which shall be a chronological listing of all receipts by date and amount, including the payor and explanation of purpose for the payment, for each deposit account. Receipts shall be totaled by deposit account. Dividends reinvested in a dividend reinvestment plan may be included in a single entry giving the total of such reinvested dividends for each security for the period, or may be included in a sub-schedule describing the reinvestment activity.

(C) A schedule of disbursements, included in the narrative or as a separate exhibit, which shall be a chronological listing of disbursements by date, check number, payee, amount and purpose for payment (if not obvious from the payee), for each deposit account. Disbursements shall be totaled by deposit account. If more than 20 disbursements were made during the period of the accounting, the accounting shall include a schedule in the narrative or as a separate exhibit, summarizing the disbursements by category, with the totals expended in each category, for the period of the account.

9.164 Changes in Accounting Period

The court will allow a change in accounting period for the convenience of the fiduciary. A motion and order is required.

9.181 Depository Statements

DO NOT ATTACH ALL BANK STATEMENTS FOR THE ACCOUNTING PERIOD. The accounting shall include an opening depository statement for each deposit account, unless submitted with a previous accounting, and a closing depository statement which shall show the balance in the account within thirty days of the close of the accounting period, or on the date of closing of an account closed during the accounting period.

11.005 Appearance Required for Summons Issued Pursuant to ORS 419B.812

A parent who is served with a summons pursuant to ORS 419B.812 must appear personally before the court at the time and place specified in the summons for a hearing on the allegation(s) of the petition.

13.005 Arbitration Program

(1) Coos and Curry courts have adopted a mandatory arbitration program for matters of less than $25,000.

(3) Proceedings conducted pursuant to subsection 2 shall not be reported unless the parties prior to the start of the proceeding pay the trial and reporter fee for a nonjury case.

(4) If the parties enter into a stipulation provided for in subsection 2, the matter shall be tried to a judge in the Fifteenth Judicial District chosen by the parties. If the parties cannot agree upon the judge who is to try the case, a judge not otherwise properly disqualified shall be assigned by the presiding judge.
