MODEL PARENTING PLAN

INTRODUCTION

Oregon law recognizes that children should have frequent and continuing contact with parents who have shown the ability to act in the child's best interest. Parents are encouraged to share in the rights and responsibilities of raising their children, and to consider the best interests of their children in developing a parenting plan.

At the very least, a parenting plan must outline the minimum amount of time each parent is entitled to spend with the child. That time is called "parenting time."

The purpose of the Model Parenting Plan is to provide assistance to parents who have not otherwise developed a Parenting Plan. Parents are encouraged to be flexible and to consider their child's best interests in arranging additional parenting time.

DEFINITIONS

“Child” includes all minor children of the parties.

“Custodial parent” refers to the party awarded sole custody; if joint custody is awarded, it refers to the person designated as providing the child’s primary physical residence.

“Non-custodial parent” refers to the party who is not the custodial parent as defined above.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Personal plans and the child’s desires: The child shall not be permitted to determine whether to follow the parenting plan. Personal plans of the custodial parent or child (for example, school or church activities) are not reasons for failing to follow the parenting plan. Only substantial medical reasons involving the child shall be considered sufficient to postpone the non-custodial parent’s parenting time.

If a child is ill and unable to be with the non-custodial parent, a make-up parenting time shall occur on the following weekend. If the non-custodial parent fails to exercise parenting time, the parenting time will not be made-up.

Long distance parenting time: A child under seven years of age shall not travel long distances for parenting time unless accompanied by a parent or mutually agreed upon adult. A child seven years of age or older may travel alone, provided appropriate travel arrangements have been made.

Conflicts in parenting time schedule: Specifically designated parenting time (such as Spring, Summer and Winter vacation parenting time) shall take precedence over weekend and weekday parenting time.

Delivery and pick-up: Parenting time shall be exercised in a prompt manner. Pick up and delivery shall occur no more than 15 minutes before or 15 minutes after the time specified for parenting time to begin and end. The non-custodial parent shall pick up the child at the start of that parent's parenting time period and the custodial parent shall pick up the child at the end of non-custodial parent's parenting time period.

Meals and clothes: The custodial parent shall have the child fed and ready to begin parenting time with the non-custodial parent, with sufficient clothing packed. The non-custodial parent shall have the child fed before returning the child from that parent's parenting time period and shall return with the child all clothing received from the custodial parent.

Correspondence and telephone contact: Each parent shall have the right to freely correspond with the child and to telephone the child at least three times per week during reasonable hours, for periods not exceeding 20 minutes, without monitoring by any person.

A child over the age of 12 shall have the right to initiate calls to the other parent during reasonable hours. Long distance calls initiated by the child are to be made collect, unless the parties agree otherwise.

Mutual respect: Both parents shall refrain from making comments in the presence of the child that are intended or likely to diminish the love, respect and affection that the child has for the other parent.

Access to records and information: The non-custodial parent has the right to the following:

- (1) To inspect and receive school records and to consult with school staff concerning the child's welfare and education, to the same extent as the custodial parent.
- (2) To inspect and receive governmental agency and law enforcement records concerning the child, to the same extent as the custodial parent.
- (3) To consult with any person who may provide care or medical treatment for the child and to inspect and receive the child's medical, dental and psychological records, to the same extent as the custodial parent.

(4) To authorize emergency medical, dental, psychological, psychiatric or other health care for the child if the custodial parent is, for practical purposes, unavailable.

Day care: Each parent shall be responsible for arranging and paying for day care for the child when the child is with that parent. The term “with that parent” means that the parent has picked up the child and started a period of parenting time.

Emergencies: Each party shall immediately notify the other party of emergency circumstances or substantial changes in the health or safety of the child.

PARENTING TIME PROVISIONS

WEEKEND PARENTING TIME SCHEDULE

Generally: The non-custodial parent shall have the child every other weekend, beginning on Friday night at 6:00 p.m. and ending the following Sunday at 6:00 p.m.

School closure days and bank holidays: School closure days are days when school is not in session, excepting summer vacation, the winter school break and spring vacation. The parents shall obtain a school calendar for the school district in which the child resides for the purpose of determining school closure days.

Bank holidays are days when most banks are closed, such as Memorial Day, Labor Day and the Fourth of July.

If the non-custodial parent's weekend parenting time is immediately preceded by a school closure day(s) or bank holiday, the weekend parenting time shall begin 6:00 p.m. on the day that the school or banks close for the week. If it is immediately followed by a school closure day(s) or bank holiday, the weekend parenting time will continue until 6:00 p.m. on Monday.

Alternating weekends: The alternate weekend parenting time schedule shall rotate each year as follows: In all even-numbered years, the non-custodial parent's first weekend visit shall begin at 6:00 p.m. on the first Friday after New Year's Day; In all odd-numbered years, the non-custodial parent's first weekend shall begin the second Friday following New Year's Day.

WEEKDAY PARENTING TIME SCHEDULE

The non-custodial parent shall have parenting time with the child every other Wednesday, meaning a Wednesday that is not immediately followed by a weekend when the non-custodial parent is scheduled to have parenting time. If the child is in school, the non-custodial parent shall visit the child on Wednesday from 5:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. If the child is not in school, the visit shall begin at 10:00 a.m. and end at 8:00 p.m.

WINTER VACATION SCHEDULE

Even-numbered years: In all even-numbered years, the non-custodial parent shall have parenting time beginning at 6:00 p.m. on the day that school adjourns until 10:00 a.m. on December 26 and from 10:00 a.m. on January 1 until 5:00 p.m. the day before the child's winter vacation ends.

Odd-numbered years: In all odd-numbered years, the non-custodial parent shall have parenting time beginning at 10:00 a.m. on December 26 and ending at 6:00 p.m. the day before school is back in session.

SUMMER PARENTING TIME

Selecting the summer parenting time period(s): The non-custodial parent shall provide custodial parent with written notice by April 15 of the time(s) that the non-custodial parent intends to exercise summer parenting time rights.

The custodial parent shall have the right to an uninterrupted two (2) week parenting period during the summer months as long as the custodial parent provides the non-custodial parent with written notice, by May 15, of the time that the custodial parent intends to exercise that period and the two (2) week period does not interfere with the non-custodial parent's summer parenting time schedule.

Children under the age of 6: When a child is under the age of 6, the non-custodial parent's summer parenting time with that child shall be divided into three (3) blocks of time; each block shall consist of a one(1) week parenting period. Each parenting period for the non-custodial parent is to be separated by at least a one (1) week period of parenting time for the custodial parent.

Children age 6 or older: When the child is age 6 or older, the non-custodial parent's summer parenting time shall be for sixty (60) consecutive days. During that period, if the parents live within 60 miles of each other, the custodial parent shall have the same weekend parenting time as would the non-custodial parent.

SPRING VACATION

_____The non-custodial parent shall have the right to parenting time during the Spring vacation from school in odd-numbered years from 6:00 p.m. on the day school closes until 6:00 p.m. the Saturday before school resumes.

MOTHER'S AND FATHER'S DAYS

The mother shall always have the right to parenting time with the child on Mother's Day; the father shall always have the right to parenting time with the child on Father's Day. In the event that Mother's/Father's Day falls on a weekend when the other parent would otherwise have the right to parenting time with the child, the child shall be returned to the parent for whom the day is in honor by 10:00 a.m.

BIRTHDAYS

Each parent shall have the right to parenting time with the child on that parent's birthday as outlined below. In odd-numbered years, the non-custodial parent shall have the right to parenting time with the child on the child's birthday as outlined below.

On days when school is in session, from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. On days when school is not in session, from 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.

"At issue" means that the case is ready to be set for trial or, if a party seeks to modify the parenting time or custody provisions of a divorce judgment or a judgment establishing paternity, when the case is ready to be set for hearing.

(3) The following cases are excluded from the ADR requirement: FEDs; Probate; Small Claims; Adoptions; Filiation proceedings when the only question is paternity; Support Enforcement matters; Motions to modify child support orders; Juvenile Delinquency and Dependency cases; Criminal cases; Family Abuse Prevention Act restraining orders,

(4) A party may request that a case not exempt under 12.005(3) of this rule be excused from compliance with this rule. The motion must be substantially in the form illustrated in Appendix A and submitted to the judge to whom the case has been assigned, or if the case has not been assigned to a judge, to the presiding judge. If good cause exists, the judge may excuse the case from compliance with this rule.

12.035 Alternative Dispute Resolution Commission

(1) The Seventh Judicial District shall maintain an ADR Commission pursuant to the functions and membership requirements of the Oregon Revised Statutes, Oregon Administrative Rules, the Uniform Trial Court Rules and this rule.

(2) In addition to its other duties, the Commission shall monitor the ADR program, advise the court regarding ADR services, review qualifications and training of arbitrators and mediators participating in, or seeking to participate in, the court annexed program, establish a compensation schedule applicable to the court annexed cases for arbitrators and mediators, prepare a notice of the availability of ADR, and hire staff or contract with an individual or organization as the Commission deems necessary to coordinate the ADR. The notice of the availability of ADR shall include, in addition to a description of the ADR alternatives, the name and telephone number of the person whom the parties contact to initiate mediation or arbitration and the manner in which the parties select a mediator or arbitrator.

(3) The ADR Commission shall include, at least, the following as members: the presiding judge (hereinafter, all references to “the presiding judge” mean the presiding judge or a judge designated by the Presiding Judge), the Trial Court Administrator, an attorney, a mediator, a court clerk and a lay member. No person who is providing mediation or arbitration services through the court annexed program may be a member of the commission.

(4) The term of appointment to the commission shall be two years. The presiding judge may reappoint a commission member. The presiding judge may remove a commission member at the judge’s discretion.

12.036 ADR Panel Established

(1) There shall be a panel of mediators comprised of mediators who satisfy qualifications and training standards prescribed in OAR Chapter 718 and have been appointed by the presiding judge.

12.037 Appointment to ADR Panel

(1) To apply for inclusion on the ADR panel of mediators and arbitrators, a person must sign and file an application provided by the commission.

(2) The ADR commission shall review each application and make a recommendation to the presiding judge. The commission may require that applicants appear before the commission in person.

(3) The decision as to whether an individual is qualified to be on the panel and the number of panel members shall be made by the presiding judge, after considering the advice of the commission.

(4) The term of appointment to the panel shall not exceed two years. The presiding judge may reappoint a panel member.

12.038 Removal from the ADR Panel

(1) The ADR commission shall monitor the performance of ADR panel members and report to the presiding judge as appropriate.

(2) The presiding judge may remove an ADR panel member from the court panel at the presiding judge's discretion, after considering the advice of the commission.

12.062 Referral to ADR

(1) When a party files a complaint, petition or answer, the court clerk receiving the filing shall provide the party a copy of the notice of the availability of ADR.

(2) When a case is at issue, it shall be the responsibility of the party who initiated the case to contact the court for the purpose of scheduling a judicial settlement conference or to contact the person designated by the commission to initiate mediation or arbitration.

12.085 Assignment of Mediator or Arbitrator and Scheduling

(1) Unless the parties hire a mediator, mediators shall be assigned from the court's panel on a rotating basis. The parties shall select an arbitrator in a manner to be set forth in the arbitration assignment and payment policy, Appendix B.

(2) The mediator or arbitrator shall notify the parties of the date, time, and meeting place of the initial mediation or arbitration session. Additional sessions shall be set at the discretion of the mediator or arbitrator.

(3) The parties may choose, at their option and expense, forms of ADR other than those provided by these rules. Parties entering into private mediation services shall be subject to the same provisions of ORS 36.180 to 36.210.

(4) If the parties elect a form of ADR other than those provided for by these rules, the parties must still comply with the timing and reporting requirements of these rules.

(5) If a party objects to the court annexed mediator or arbitrator, the party may request reassignment to another mediator or arbitrator by filing an affidavit with the presiding judge, or the judge assigned to the case, setting forth good cause for the request. The judge may grant the request if good cause is shown.

12.125 Compensation Of Mediators and Arbitrators

(1) In cases under ORS 107, the commission shall establish a payment schedule. In all other cases, payment of the mediation or arbitration fee is due within 14 calendar days of notice of assignment of an arbitrator or mediator. In such cases, each party shall pay directly to the mediator or arbitrator one-half of the prescribed fee, unless the parties and arbitrator or mediator agree otherwise. In arbitration cases, the arbitrator shall advise the parties of the possibility of a waiver or deferral of the arbitration fee under ORS 36.420(2). Motions to waive or defer arbitration fees shall be submitted directly to the court and ruled upon by the presiding judge.

(2) Excepting cases where fees are waived or deferred pursuant to ORS 36.420(2), if either party fails to pay the prescribed mediation or arbitration fee within 14 calendar days of assignment, the mediator or arbitrator shall report the non-payment to the court in writing to allow the court to determine whether it is appropriate to sanction the party under UTCR 1.090.

12.165 Completing ADR

(1) Any case assigned to mediation or arbitration must complete the mediation or arbitration within 90 days of assignment, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

12.225 Settlement by ADR

(1) The results of mediation or arbitration shall be reported to the court by the mediator or arbitrator as "settled" or "not settled."

(2) Within ten judicial days of reporting a case as "settled," the mediator or arbitrator shall file any written agreement, signed by the parties, with the court and notify the court which party shall be responsible for filing the appropriate motion, order or judgment with the court.

(3) If the parties are not able to settle a case through mediation, the case will be set for trial and not be required to be arbitrated.

12.275 Good Faith Mediation

(1) Under circumstances not limited to the following, the court may exercise its authority under UTCR 1.090 to impose sanctions against a party.

(a) The party or attorney fails to attend a scheduled mediation session, arbitration hearing or judicial settlement conference.

(b) The party or attorney fails to act in good faith during the mediation, arbitration or judicial settlement conference.

(c) The party or attorney fails to submit on a timely basis paperwork required as a part of the mediation, arbitration or judicial settlement conference.

(d) The party or attorney fails to have a principal necessary to approve the resolution of a case present or readily available, by telephone or other means, at the time of the mediation, arbitration or judicial settlement conference, unless, in advance, the court grants the party or attorney leave from compliance with this section of the rule.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT ARBITRATION ASSIGNMENT AND PAYMENT POLICY

I. Referral to arbitration

When a case is referred to arbitration, a list of four court-annexed arbitrators will be furnished to the parties by the court. The parties are encouraged to stipulate to an arbitrator. In the absence of the stipulation within 14 days after a case is referred to arbitration, an arbitrator shall be chosen in the manner defined below.

II. Appointment of arbitrators

Within 14 days after a list of court-annexed arbitrators is furnished to the parties, each party shall respond to the court by nominating two arbitrators. The parties should indicate which arbitrator is the parties' first choice. The parties need not serve their responses on the other party.

The failure of a party to respond shall be deemed to be a waiver of that party's right to participate in the arbitrator selection process.

A. No response by any party

If no party responds to the court within 14 days, an arbitrator will be appointed by the court from a rotating list. If the next arbitrator on the list is not qualified for the issues presented in a certain case, the arbitrator will be passed and the next qualified arbitrator on the list will be appointed.

B. Response by only one party

If only one party responds and that party nominates arbitrators in order of preference, that party's arbitrator of preference will be appointed.

C. Two adverse and both respond

i) If both parties respond and only one arbitrator is nominated, that shall be considered a stipulation and the arbitrator will be appointed.

ii) If both parties respond and nominate the same arbitrator as their first choice, that shall be considered a stipulation and the arbitrator will be appointed.

iii) If both parties respond and name the same two arbitrators in the same order of preference, that shall be considered a stipulation to the arbitrator of first preference and that arbitrator will be appointed.

iv) If both parties respond, each nominating two arbitrators with only one arbitrator being nominated by both parties, but that arbitrator not receiving the same preference by each party, that arbitrator shall be appointed by the court.

v) If both parties respond and each nominates two arbitrators but no one arbitrator is nominated by both parties, the court shall appoint the arbitrator whose last appointment by the court is the least recent.

D) More than two adverse parties and at least two respond

If there are more than two adverse parties, each party shall nominate one arbitrator. An arbitrator who is nominated by a majority of the parties shall be appointed. If no arbitrator is nominated by a majority of the parties, an arbitrator shall be selected and then appointed by the court in the manner used when no party responds as is described above in paragraph II) A).

III) Payment

The court-annexed arbitrators shall presumptively charge the hourly rate set by the Arbitration Commission/Alternative Dispute Resolution Commission. (Note: As of December, 2003, the rate is $100 per hour with a five hour maximum). The presumptively hourly rate and maximum hours shall apply unless the parties and arbitrator agree otherwise.

The arbitrator is to be paid by the parties as agreed by the parties or as determined through arbitration.
